MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE A SUPPLEMENT TO APPLICATION TO APPEAL THE DENIAL OF POST-CONVICTION RELIEF

Appellant, Adnan Syed, by and through his attorney, C. Justin Brown, pursuant to Md. Code Ann., Crim. Pro. Section 7-109 and Md. Rules 8-204 and 8-431, hereby submits his Motion for Leave to File a Supplement to his Application for Leave to Appeal the Denial of Post-Conviction Relief. In support, Appellant states the following:

1. On January 27, 2014, Appellant filed a timely Application for Leave to Appeal the Denial of Post-Conviction Relief (the “ALA”), arguing that the post-conviction court erred when it rejected his claims that his trial counsel was ineffective for (1) failing to investigate an alibi witness, Asia McClain, and (2) failing to seek a plea offer.
2. On January 20, 2015, Appellant filed a Supplement to his ALA (the “Supplement”) to request that this Court remand his case to the Circuit Court in light of material evidence that has emerged since the closure of his Post-Conviction proceedings and since the submission of his ALA because “justice will be served by permitting further proceedings.” Md. Rule 8-604(d). Specifically, the new evidence is contained in an Affidavit by alibi witness Asia McClain, dated January 13, 2015. (Supp. to ALA Ex. 7 at 3 (McClain Affidavit)). In the Supplement, Appellant also requested that, in the alternative, this Court consider both issues raised in his ALA because the issues are meritorious and inextricably intertwined.

3. The Supplement raises the same legal issues as those raised in the ALA.
4. This Court has not yet ruled on the ALA.
5. Appellant requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order allowing him to file the Supplement to his ALA, which was previously submitted to this Court.

WHEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests that this Honorable Court sign the attached Order and grant this Motion for Leave to File a Supplement to his Application for Leave to Appeal the Denial of Post-Conviction Relief.

Respectfully Submitted
